Board Members Recruitment: Call for Expressions of Interest

Type: Voluntary/Unpaid

Location: Western Sydney Head Office, Migrant/Multicultural services

Roles Available: Non-Executive Directors

Background:

Afghan Women on The Move Inc (AWOTM) is a compassionate organisation dedicated to supporting the health, mental wellbeing, and development of Afghan and multicultural women in Australia. Our vision centres on inclusivity and diversity, fostering participation from women of diverse backgrounds in Sydney and broader Australia. We are committed to empowering Afghan and multicultural women, helping them find their voice and independence to thrive as integral members of Australian society. Our mission involves advocating for these women, providing practical support, and addressing mental health needs.

Through various initiatives and transformative programs focusing on skill-building for successful integration, employment, practical training in language, financial literacy, digital skills, art programs, cultural events, and mentorship, AWOTM strives to create a nurturing environment where these women can grow, heal, and build strong community connections.

About the Opportunity:

Afghan Women on the Move Inc (AWOTM) is thrilled to announce opportunities for individuals to join our Board of Directors. We extend this invitation to both men and women from diverse backgrounds who are experienced and enthusiastic about undertaking governance and leadership board roles within our organisation.

These volunteer positions are available to individuals dedicated to multicultural communities and possessing relevant Australian experience. We specifically encourage applications from women and those with expertise in governance, finance, risk management, human resources, policy development, leadership, or individuals with lived experience as refugees. We highly value contributions that enhance our board's collective experience and effectiveness.
